YOUR LEVEL: Please list chamber works you have played with little technical difficulty recently.

Please list solo works you have played with little technical difficulty recently.

Our sponsor, the Amateur Chamber Music Players, Inc., uses a system of self-grading. You can find it at the website www.acmp.net, and then click on "Grade Yourself" on the left side menu. How would you grade yourself?

If you are a violinist, would you prefer to play first or second violin?

REQUESTS: Please list works you would like to play, and other participants with whom you would like to work. Bear in mind that we will do our best to accommodate your wishes, but can't guarantee them.

OPTIONAL ADDITIONAL MATERIALS: If you have a recent recording of yourself, please include a copy with your application. This is simply to give us a better idea of your ability so you can be placed in an appropriate group.

If you live in or near the following cities (New York, San Francisco, Oklahoma, Hong Kong, Frankfurt, Berlin, London, Amsterdam), or will be visiting one of these cities in the near future, our faculty would love to meet you before the festival begins. Please let us know if you would like us to contact you for such a meeting:

YES

NO

ADDITIONAL GUESTS: Please let us know if you additional family members or guests you would like to bring to Liesing. If they would like to be Auditors of the Festival, please fill out a separate Auditor Application Form. We are very happy to accommodate them, and will certainly consider them part of the Festival family! We will provide housing and meals at the low Festival rate (see attached sheet for a cost breakdown).
